

Two turning points of the normalized angular zero

$$a = 1.0014289951689850677, \quad b = 0.9974958668828783544, \quad t = \rho^2$$

Curve and crossing locations are numerical; the exact rational certificate proves both extrema.